

Brandi Kemper serves as the Marketing & Events Coordinator for the Economic Development Commission of Florida's Space Coast. Brandi's primary responsibilities are event logistics and coordination. Brandi also handles the dissemination of internal and external communications including mailings and outreach.

Brandi has been with the EDC for 15 years and prior to joining the EDC, Brandi served as a Project Coordinator at the United Service Source. Brandi previously provided administrative support to the Marketing and Business Development departments and was promoted to the marketing department in 2007. She is a California native.