

Kathie Heisey serves as Administrative Assistant for the Economic Development Commission of Florida's Space Coast. She manages all front-desk functions as well as providing administrative support to the Senior Director of Operations. Kathie also assists in administration of employee benefits and programs.

Kathie has over 20 years of executive administrative experience, as well as several years in human resources as an HR Generalist and a Benefits Administrator. Kathie received a BA in Psychology from the University of Central Florida.

Kathie has volunteered with Big Brothers/Big Sisters in the past and is currently a volunteer with the Guardian Ad Litem program and the EDC's employee Campaign Manager for United Way.